

RESOLUTION OF THE
WHITE MOUNTAIN APACHE TRIBE OF THE
FORT APACHE INDIAN RESERVATION

BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the White Mountain Apache Tribe that in relation to that certain contract by and between the Tribe as client and James E. Curry of Washington, D. C., as attorney, which was originally executed under date of 23 June 1948 and approved on 4 August 1948 on behalf of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, thereby becoming effective as of the latter date, and which bears symbol No. I-I-Ind 42,076 and is recorded in Volume 44 at page 71 of Miscellaneous records in the Office of Indian Affairs in the Department of the Interior at Washington, D. C., the Tribe consent to and approve, and it does hereby consent to and approve, the assignment by attorney Curry of (a) an undivided 1/3 interest jointly to attorneys Jay H. Hoag, and Clarence G. Lindquist, both of Duluth, Minnesota, and (b) an undivided 1/3 interest to the law firm of Cobb and Weissbrodt, a co-partnership consisting of attorneys David Cobb and I. S. Weissbrodt, both of Washington, D. C. in and to the compensation payable under such contract which is for services heretofore rendered or hereafter to be rendered in connection with the investigation and prosecution of all claims of such Tribe against the United States government.

The foregoing resolution was on 7 January 1952 duly approved and adopted by a vote 6 for and 0 against by the Council of the White Mountain Apache Tribe pursuant to authority vested in it by Section 1-(b) of Article VI of the constitution of such Tribe, which constitution was ratified by the Tribe on 15 August 1938, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on 26 August 1938 pursuant to Section 16 of the Indian Reorganization Act of 18 June 1934 (48 Stat. 984), as amended.
